The Performers

Master of Ceremonies

Brent Carlson has come full circle. His family moved to Third Street in Moscow in 1972, and graduated from Moscow in 1978. He attended the University of Idaho majoring in K-12 music education. He had a 38 year career teaching general music, choir, and drama, in Wyoming, Washington, with the last 31 years in Lewiston Idaho, where he retired in 2019. He is currently the pastor of Victory in Jesus Fellowship in Lewiston. Brent started singing barbershop in high school, mainly the baritone line, as well as vocal jazz and musical theatre.

ROMEOS

ROMEOS (Romantic Ornery Men Entertaining Others in Song)

The ROMEOS barbershop quartet have been in their present configuration since January 2017 and were members of the former Palouse Harmony Chorus. Quartet members include (from the left) Tracey Windley (Bari), Moscow; Ian Wendt (Bass), Moscow; Dan Pierce (Tenor), Moscow; and Dr. Ben Adkins (Lead), Pullman.

ENCORE Moscow High School singers directed by Stephanie Sant

Encore is an extra-curricular choir that meets twice a week after school. Each year we sing about 5-7 performances including the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival, a school jazz concert, ArtsFest at Moscow High School, and any community events we can pull together. Most of the musicians also participate in the larger school ensembles of choir, band, and/or orchestra. They are committed students who enjoy music and each others' company.

More about Inland Harmony Chorus

Inland Harmony Chorus

Inland Harmony Chorus was chartered in 1969 as the Lewis-Clark Chapter of Sweet Adelines International. Our name changed to Inland Harmony in 1991. The chorus is a diverse group of women, aged 17 to 90, from Moscow, Pullman, Lewiston and Clarkston. We sing around the region in places such as Moscow Farmer's Market, county fairs and community events. We also compete regionally with Sweet Adelines International Region 13 North by Northwest.

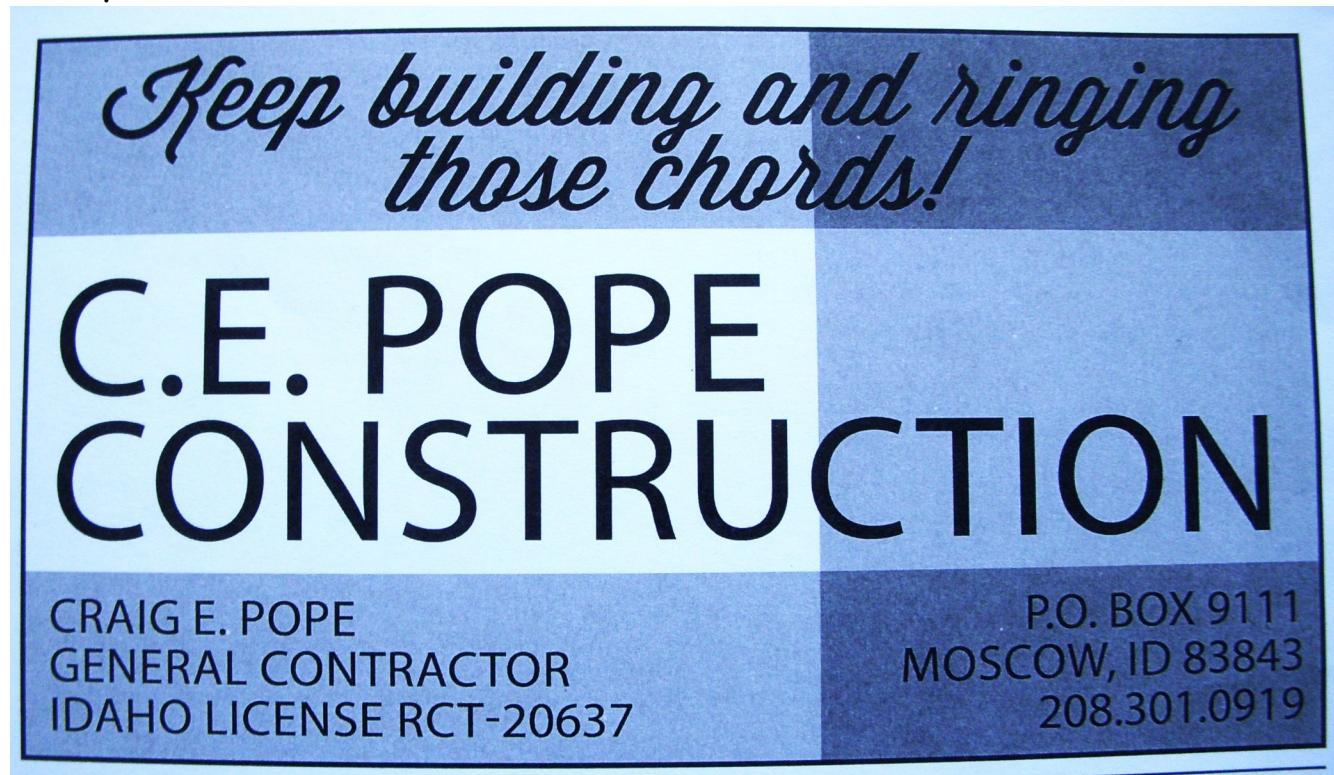

We rehearse Monday evening 6:30-9 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Genesee. We welcome ladies of all ages to join us in the joy of singing a capella harmony. For more information call or text President Judy Browning 208-750-5729 or Membership Coordinator Ronda Shafer 509-552-6221. Find us on Facebook or InlandHarmonyChorus.org.
